2. A full course in the departments of study usually embraced in a college curriculum, and, in addition, a very extensive range of selection in Special Departments.

3. Special and prominent attention is given to the study of the history, structure and literature of the English language. Every student from the time of his admission to College will receive a systematic and thorough training in the knowledge and correct use of our mother tongue. 4. Unusual facilities are afforded for the study of German, French, Italian and Spanish, without extra charge. 5. A special and comprehensive course of in-struction is furnished for those who design to teach. To all such students tuition is remitted on easy conditions.

6. An extensive course of instruction is provided in Physical Geography, National Industries and Resources, Commercial Law, Book Keeping, and such other studies as are required to prepare young men to enter successfully into business and com ercial pursuits.

7. A carefully graded preparatory department, netuding Classical and English studies, is under the same general government, and taught by the same professors, as the Collegiate Department.

8. A well-selected corps of able and experienced Professors, as follows:

HENRY BARNARD, LL.D., Principal, and Professor of Mental, Morsland Social Science, including the principles and Methods of eduention. Rev. G. W. McPhail, D. D., Assistant Profes
